

I-35W Ramps to Downtown Fort Worth Now Open

Posted on January 29, 2019

Fort Worth (WBAP/KLIF) – There are now two new I-35W ramps into downtown Fort worth. The new toll ramps connect the interstate's TexPress toll lanes to Belknap and Weatherford Streets downtown.

They're open as crews to continue doing work in the area for the next several weeks.

the new ramps are expected to ease congestion on I-35W during rush hour.

Prices for the exits into and out of downtown Fort Worth are posted on electronic overhead signs, and vary according to traffic conditions.
